Dear Mr. Silva:

I am in receipt of your undated letters to the Office of the Attorney General and the Commissioner of Corrections. In these letters you make three distinct complaints:

1. Issues with receiving mail
2. Being called to the Health Services Center
3. No Muslim Services for inmates

My responses are as follows:

1. Write to your facility Warden for local issues such as mail.
2. You may refuse medical treatment (to a degree) but you will go to Health Services Center when called and refuse treatment in person.
3. We have had no success in finding an Imam to facilitate Muslim Services at any of the facilities. Until we do, you may practice your religion to the best of your abilities within the guidelines imposed.

Thank you,

Christopher H. Kench
